Reference:-

The Board submits the following report regarding the grant of compassionate gratuity to Pattammal, widow of late Narayanaswami Iyer, Assistant Prohibition Officer, Border Patrol, Bellary, who died on 11-12-47 at 1 A.M.

2.At the time of his death the Assistant Prohibition Officer was aged 52 years 3 months and 2 days and had put in a service of 31 years 4 months and 28 days of which 30 years 8 months and 11 days was permanent service.

3.The financial condition of the deceased was enquired into by the Assistant Inspector, General Duty, Madras Town Circle. The records of enquiry are herewith submitted to the Government. It may be observed that he has not left any immoveable immoveable properties and that he has not subscribed to General Provident Fund or any other fund.

He has no children and his widow has jewels worth Rs.500/- He has insured his life for Rs.5000/- out of which loans to the extent of Rs.2000/- had to be met. The widow has borrowed about Rs.500/- towards the deceased's obsequies. There is only a net sum of Rs.2500/- left and her relations are not in a position to support her.

In view of the long service of the deceased officer and the straightened circumstances in which the widow finds herself suddenly the Board considers that this may be treated as a special case and recommends that Government may be pleased to sanction a compassionate gratuity of Rs.1000/- (Rupees Thousand only) to the widow. The gratuity may be made payable at Madras.

Statement of Pattammal W/o Late Sri S. Narayanaswami Ayyar Assistant Prohibition Agent Bellary

My husband Late Mr Narayanaswami Ayyar died of heart failure while in harness on 11.12.47. He had no lands & property and or any house. He had insured his life in Prudential Assurance Company for Rs 5000/- He did not subscribe to any General Provident Fund or other benefit funds. He did not deposit any thing in the Post office Savings Bank or in any Bank. I have got Jewels worth about 500/- During his life time he had incurred debts to the extent of Rs 2000/- from his or my relatives and all the loans were taken as hand loans and there are no promissory note or any other document. The money was borrowed at much and they have to be discharged.

My husband Sarada brother who is still alive and he is at Madura. Even during my husbands life time, he was not on talking terms with his brother and it is too much for me to expect any help from him. He did not even the funeral and other Ceremonies of my husband. I had borrowed Rs 500/- for his obsequies and I have to repay this debt also. My brother in law did not equate a little I have got 2 brothers and my Mother Lakshmi. The brothers are living Separately with their families. My Lakshmi is aged about so. and she is living with my younger brother and depending on him. The brothers have got their families to support and I cannot look to them for any support.

I have no issues.

I request that the Government may kindly take Sympathetic view of my present Condition and grant me Compassionate allowance.

I desire payment of the gratuity if sanctioned from Madras Treasury.

I am the youngest brother of the applicant (Mrs Narayana Swami aiyyar). I am living at present at Jambaram and I am likely to be shortly transferred to Calcutta. I have a family of a wife and 2 children to support in a costly place like Calcutta. I am not in a position to support my sister for any long period or time. At best I can afford her assistance about twice say for a few months. I know that her husband has not left anything except life insurance Policy which has already got both liabilities. I know my Sister had to borrow about four to five hundred rupees for performing Ceremonies connected with her death. My brother in law the deceased while he was alive told me that he had got debts to the tune of about two thousand rupees & he left no assets over it.

Statement of Sri S. Narayana Ayyar. Manager James Wright Ltd. Madras.

I am the younger brother of Mrs. S. Narayana Ayyar who has put in an application for compassionate gratuity. I am put up at St. Thomas Mount. I have a family of wife and 4 children and I am their only support. My wife is coming from my native and I am now in a position to support my sister for any length of time. I came to Madras for a few days. Since then her husband has not sent anything substantial except the insurance policy. My brother-in-law who lives alone used to tell me that he has difficulties to the extent of two thousand rupees to discharge and a few amounts and he used to get worried over it. After his death my sister borrowed about five hundred rupees to meet the expenses connected with her death.

Statement of Mr. Pattammal wife of late S. Ranganesamy Iyr. Asstt. Prohibition officer, Bellary residing now with S. 21
Rajagopala Iyr in 56, Thambu chetty Street, Nasra.

My husband died in Bellary on 11.12.47. on account of heart trouble being treated for a period of one week. I am now living with my brother S. Rajagopala Iyr in 56, Thambu chetty Street I will be residing with my father T.R. Srinivasa Iyr also in Mangala Alaya. Thambaram. My husband at the time of his death left Insurance Policies worth about Rs 5000/. (Two policies one for Rs 3 000/. and another for Rs 2000/.) I have received all those policy amounts. He has left liabilities to Rs 2000/. which I have met and paid from the policy amount. All are hand loans received in Bellary by my husband where he was working before the time of his death. Besides this, there was Cash for Rs 200/. which was spent on his funeral expenses. I have no other property moveable or immoveable or no other source of income. My husband has not contributed anything towards any fund. I have no daughter or son. I am the only legal heir left by the deceased. I have no relatives who can help me in these hard days. even though I have got the brothers of the deceased on my husband side, and my brother and and father and step brother on my side. Even though they are earning members, they have got their own families to look after.

I have known the family of V. Rajagopala Aiyar, R.A., 56, Thanikachetty Street, Madras for the last 20 years. His Brother-in-law Late S. Narayanaswamy Aiyar of the Prohibition Department, died on 11.12.1947. He left a widow who has no issues male or female. He had 2 life insurance Policies for a total value of Rs 5000/- and I know very well that he was in debt to many people and these debts were discharged by the sum of Rs 2000/- by his wife

after his death. There is no fixed income or immovable property left for the widow, and unfortunately her two brothers are members of large families, and are not able to support her.
Besides her own brother Mr Rajagopala
Aiyar, She has a Step Brother, &
